Faculty Research Rooms

- For Faculty & Instructors [1]
- Services [2]
- Facilities [3]
- Policies [4]

Morris Library has two rooms (580B & C) available for current faculty to use for an extended period of up to one semester to consult a large number of library materials and/or to work on a research project.

Each room will be assigned to two researchers at a time who will share the room.

Procedure

- Interested faculty apply for a room at the beginning of each semester. [5]
- The Dean of Library Affairs reviews applications according to the criteria listed below, prioritizes the applications, and assigns the rooms based on the merit of the need.
- Once the user has been informed of a room assignment through an email from the Dean’s Office, s/he may begin using the Faculty Research Room.
- The key to the room will be checked in/out from the Dean’s Office and room assignments will be done for one month at a time with the possibility of renewal.
- The Dean of Library Affairs will maintain a waiting list if there are more applicants than rooms available.
- Faculty Research Room users notify the Dean’s Office when they have completed their project, so the room can be assigned to the next person on the waiting list.
Criteria for Assignment

Eligibility for Faculty Research Rooms is based on one or more of the following criteria, which are detailed in the web-based application form:

- Applicant needs extended access to a large number of library circulating and/or reference materials.
- Applicant is engaged in a research or writing project that requires uninterrupted study for more than a few days.
- Applicant is engaged in SIUC committee work that requires uninterrupted study.

Note: Applicants who do not have private office space elsewhere on campus receive priority.

Additional Procedures

1. The deadline for applications is the Friday of the week before classes begin each semester.
2. It is the responsibility of the Faculty Research Room user to notify the Dean’s Office when the room assigned is no longer needed.
3. Correspondence with the Dean’s Office is normally through email after the initial submission of the web-based application form.
4. The Dean’s Office will send a reminder to release or renew Faculty Research Room at the end of each month.
5. A Faculty Research Room user may apply for renewal at the end of the assigned period, but will have no priority over other applicants.
