Manuscript Collections

• Collections

The Manuscripts section includes personal and family papers, business and institutional records, and over 80 photograph collections. Manuscripts and Rare Book collections [2] complement one another to form research specialty areas. These include:

American Philosophy

including the papers of John Dewey, the archives of the Open Court [4] press, Christian Century Magazine, the Library of Living Philosophers [5], and the papers and libraries of other individual philosophers and philosophical organizations.

• Guide to Philosophy Collection

First Amendment Freedoms

and censorship issues, in the papers of Theodore Schroeder, John Howard Lawson, and several collections relating to Henry Miller.

• Guide to Vice Resources

Twentieth Century American and British Literature

notably from the period between World War I and II, including Richard Aldington, Kay Boyle, Lawrence Durrell, Robert Graves, D.H. Lawrence, and others.

• Guide to Twentieth Century Literature

Irish Studies

centered around James Joyce [12], William Butler Yeats [13], Lady Gregory [14], Lennox Robinson [15] and the Abbey Theatre [16], Brian O’Nolan [17], Katharine Tynan Hinkson [18], and Francis Stuart [19].
• Guide to Irish Literature [20]

Theater [21]

in the papers of Erwin Piscator [22], Mordecai Gorelik [23] and Marjorie Lawrence, [24] the records of Dublin's Abbey Theatre [16] and Great Britain's Unity Theatre [25], and the American Sherman Theatre Collection of melodrama play scripts.

World War I

in dozens of collections of diaries, letters, postcards, and photographs documenting the service of individual soldiers from Illinois and elsewhere in the United States, as well as Great Britain and Germany.

• Guide to World War I Collection [26]

Southern Illinois history and culture [27]

including the papers and records of historian and educator John Willis Allen [28], the Rickert, Simonds, and Mann families, and local organizations and institutions, such as the First Presbyterian Church of Carbondale H.O.M.E (Honor Our Men's Efforts), the Trovillion Private Press [29], and the Carbondale Unitarian Fellowship [30].

• Guide for Carbondale, Illinois History [31]
• Guide for Southern Illinois History [32]

Cold War Political Culture

manuscripts from the Moscow Trial Records, the American Humanist Association, Korean War armistice records, and much more.

• Guide to Cold War Political Culture Collection [33]

To make a gift or donation to the manuscripts unit of the Special Collections Research Center, please visit the Donating and Giving page.

Source URL (retrieved on May 26 2018 - 8:11pm): http://www.lib.siu.edu/scrc-manuscripts

Links:
[1] http://www.lib.siu.edu/collections
[3] http://archives.lib.siu.edu/?p=collections/classifications&amp;id=76